We are Phoenix Renewables Ltd trading as The Phoenix Works (Company No. 7477370). Covering the whole of the UK, we offer a range of renewable technologies, specialising in optimised solar photovoltaic & battery storage systems and electric vehicle charging solutions.

In this Privacy Policy, whenever you see the words ‘we’, ‘us’, ‘our’ it refers to Phoenix Renewables Limited.

How can you contact our team?

- Telephone: 0113 815 5366
- Email: cs@thephoenixworks.com or our Data Protection Officer can be contacted at privacy@thephoenixworks.com
- Post: The Phoenix Works, Unit 59-62R Springfield Commercial Centre, Farsley, West Yorkshire, LS28 5LY

We are registered as a data controller at the UK Information Commissioner’s Office under number Z3609883

2. Our responsibilities

If you use any of our products or services, enquire about our services, interact with us via social media, email, call or write to us, or just visit our website, this Privacy Policy applies to you and we act as the 'data controller' of your personal data. This means we determine how and why your personal data is processed.

If you are a supplier or a member of staff (current team member, job applicant or previous team member) we have created specific policies for you, and they will have been made available to you at the appropriate point in time. The Phoenix Works is committed to ensuring the privacy and security of your personal data.

The following Privacy Policy sets out the personal data that we collect about you. This includes how and why we process your personal data, who we share it with, and lots of information about your rights and choices when it comes to the processing of your personal data.

We'll keep this Privacy Policy updated to show you all the things we do with your personal data. In certain circumstances we may also provide an extra privacy notice, which will always refer to this page.

3. Your responsibilities

- ✓ To read this Privacy Policy
- ✓ If you are a customer of The Phoenix Works, please also check the terms and conditions and policies between us as they may contain further details on how we collect and process your data.
- ✓ If you provide us with personal information about other people, or if others give us your information, we will only use that information for the specific reason for which it was provided to us. By submitting the information to us, you confirm that you have the right to authorise us to process it on your behalf in accordance with this Privacy Policy.

4. Use of any hyperlink and third-party views

Neither we nor any of our affiliates are responsible for the content of any other website, including any website through which you may have gained access to this site or to which you may gain access from this site. We do not accept any liability in connection with any such websites or links.

Where we provide a hyperlink to a third party's website, we do so because we believe in good faith that such a website contains or may contain material which is relevant to that on our site. Such a hyperlink does not signify that we or our affiliates have reviewed or approve of the connected third party's website or its contents – indeed in certain instances a hyperlink may connect you to a third party's website containing views contradictory to those expressed on our site or otherwise held by us or our affiliates.

Any views or opinions of third parties are the personal views of the individuals or organisations that provided them and do not necessarily reflect the opinion or views of us or any of our affiliates.

Where possible we have provided you with a link to their privacy policy and their main business website. Please note that whilst we make every effort to keep these links up to date, there may be instances where the organisation has changed their website and the link may no longer work. If that is the case, then please find their main website and their privacy policy can usually be found linked in the footer at the bottom of the main webpage. Please also do not hesitate to alert us to this on our email address

privacy@thephoenixworks.com

5. Protecting your personal data

The Phoenix Works team follow strict security procedures to protect your personal information. This includes following certain guidelines.

From time to time, our website, social media sites or documents may provide hypertext links to sites which are created by individuals and companies outside The Phoenix Works. We do this if the site is relevant to the topic you're reading about. Whilst we always try to check that the content of these sites is suitable, we cannot take any responsibility for the practices of the companies who publish the sites that we link to, or the accuracy or relevance of the content on them.

Protecting your data on shared devices

In order to ensure you are managing your data security as effectively as possible whilst using shared devices, the safest and most secure method is always to use a different user profile for each person using that device. This approach will ensure that all our account information, personal data, security settings, cookies and browser settings are kept separate.

If that is not possible or appropriate then it is important that whenever you have finished your browser session on any website then ensure that not only have you logged out of all your accounts, but also that you close down the browser completely before starting a new session by clicking the cross in the top right corner of the screen. You should also clear down the cookies at the end of your browsing session to ensure that your browser has 'forgotten' the information and cookies that have been provided within that browsing session.

Each browser handles cookies differently and as we don't know what browser you are using, we are not in a position to provide detailed guidance on this. However, please find below links for invalidating or deleting cookies from the most popular browsers.

Fraudulent use of your data

If you are concerned your personal details have been used fraudulently then please alert us immediately. We would also like to share with you some steps that you may find useful if you find yourself in this situation.

Seek immediate advice from your bank

If you are concerned that your bank details may have been used fraudulently you should always speak to your bank to alert them so that they have the opportunity to protect you and your accounts.

Securing your online accounts

If you have reason to believe your email account may have been compromised, then change your password immediately.

Personal credentials such as your usernames and passwords, can be stolen directly from you by criminals using tricks such as phishing emails. They can also be stolen by hackers from the services you use, if they suffer a data breach. If you suspect either has happened, you should change your password as soon as possible.

If you have used the same password on any other accounts, you should change it there too.

Reporting Incidents of Fraud or Identity theft

If you are concerned that you have been defrauded or been the victim of a scam or you have experienced cyber-crime or identity theft, then you should always report it. Reports like yours will help the police in their fight against criminal activity.

Report it to Action Fraud

If you are concerned that you have been scammed, defrauded or experienced any type of cyber-crime you should report it to Action Fraud.

Run by the City of London Police, Action Fraud is the UK's national fraud and cyber-crime reporting centre. They are the UK's national reporting centre for fraud and cyber-crime where you should report fraud if you have been scammed, defrauded or experienced cyber-crime in England, Wales and Northern Ireland, they will ensure that your fraud reports reach the right place.

You can report fraud or cyber-crime using their online reporting service any time of the day or night. They will also provide help and advice over the phone.

When you report it to them you will receive a police crime reference number. Reports taken are passed to the National Fraud Intelligence Bureau. Action Fraud does not investigate the cases and cannot advise you on the progress of a case.

- Online: <https://www.actionfraud.police.uk/report-a-fraud-including-online-crime>
- Telephone: 0300 123 2040

Report it to 101 The Police non-emergency number

101 is the number to call when you want to contact your local police in England, Wales, Scotland or Northern Ireland

Visit them online at <https://www.police.uk/contact/101/>

Please be aware that if you do report it to the Police on 101, they may also advise you to call Action Fraud

If your company data has been used fraudulently - speak with your IT Support Team

Your organisations IT Support Team may be able to offer you a level of support in this space and should be able to help you secure your online accounts and wider systems, so we would advise reaching out to them and asking for support as soon as possible.

10. Third parties who process your data

The Phoenix Works utilise industry partners where an essential element of the solution we are providing cannot be facilitated with in house operatives. We also use third parties to help us host our infrastructure and applications, communicate with customers, power our emails etc as we believe they are the best in their field at what they do.

We pass your information to a very limited number of third parties for the following reasons:

- To deliver the services you have requested from us, which might include giving information to members of your family, household, or other people who have an interest in the property, for instance, landlords or letting agents.
- To deliver services that we have a legal obligation to provide to you.
- For legal or regulatory purposes including the detection of crime and fraud prevention.
- If we choose to sell, transfer, or merge parts of our business or our assets. Alternatively, we may seek to acquire other businesses or merge with them.

Your data is shared only when strictly necessary and according to the safeguards and good practices detailed in this Privacy Policy.

Here are the details of some of our key third-party service providers, and what data they collect or we share with them, where they store the data and the purpose for which they need it.

11. How we use cookies

We use cookies. A cookie is a small file of letters and numbers that we store on your browser or the hard drive of your computer or mobile device if you agree. Cookies are anonymous, so they don't store any personal information of any kind.

Unless you adjust your browser settings to refuse cookies, we (and our third parties) will issue cookies when you use our website to distinguish you from other users of our website. These may be 'session' cookies, meaning they delete themselves when you leave The Phoenix Works website, or 'persistent' cookies which do not delete themselves and help us recognise you when you return so we can provide you with a tailored service. This helps us to provide you with a brilliant experience when you browse our site and allows us to improve our site. By continuing to browse the site, you are agreeing to our use of cookies.

We use the following cookies:

Necessary cookies — we need these for our site to operate. These cookies, for example, enable you to obtain a quote or to log into secure areas of our site.

Performance cookies — these help us to improve the way our site works by analysing how people move about our site enabling us to help you to find things more easily.

Functionality cookies — let us greet you by name and provide you with a more personalised service.

Targeting cookies — record your visit to our website, the pages you have visited and the links you have followed. We will use this information to make our website and the advertising displayed on it more relevant to your interests.

Please note that where third parties use cookies we have no control over how those third parties use those cookies, and you should check their cookie policies for further details.

How can I block cookies?

If you don't want us to use cookies in your web browser, you can block cookies by activating the setting on your browser that allows you to refuse the setting of all or some cookies. You can also delete cookies through your browser settings.

However, please remember that some parts of our website require cookies to function properly and if you use your browser settings to disable, reject, or block cookies (including essential cookies), you may not be able to access all or parts of our website. More information about cookies including what they are and how to block or delete them can be found at www.aboutcookies.org

12. Your privacy choices and rights

Your Choices

	You can choose not to provide us with your personal data If you do choose to do this, you can continue to use the website and browse its pages or interact with us on social media but we will not be able to provide you our services or process transactions without personal data.
	You can turn off cookies in your browser by changing its settings You can block cookies by activating a setting on your browser allowing you to refuse cookies. You can also delete cookies through your browser settings. If you turn off cookies, you can continue to use the website and browse its pages.

You can ask us not to use your data for marketing

We will inform you (before collecting your data) if we intend to use your data for marketing and if any third parties are involved. You can opt out from marketing by managing your settings by contacting us:

Telephone: 0113 815 5366

Email: cs@thephoenixworks.com or privacy@thephoenixworks.com

Your Rights

You have various rights in relation to your personal information. You only have the benefits of some of the rights in limited circumstances, which depend on the legal reason why we collected your personal data.

You have the right to access information we hold about you

This includes the right for us to provide you with on supplementary information about:

- the categories of data we're processing
- the purposes of data processing
- the third parties or categories of third parties to whom the data may be disclosed
- how long the data will be stored (or the criteria used to determine that period)
- your other rights regarding our use of your data all of which is covered in this policy.

We will provide you with the information within one month of your request, unless one of the following exemptions applies:

- Doing so would adversely affect the rights and freedoms of others (e.g. another person's confidentiality or intellectual property rights) or the law allows us to extend this period of time. We'll tell you if we can't meet your request for such reasons.

Some or all of the personal data is exempt from such requests in a particular circumstance. If this exemption applies, we will tell you this when responding to your request. Should you wish to exercise this right, please contact us with a description of the information you would like to see.

You have the right to make us correct any inaccurate personal data about you

You have the right to ensure that any information we hold about you is accurate and kept up to date.

You can object to us using your data for profiling you or making automated decisions about you

We may use your data to determine whether we should let you know information that might be relevant to you (for example, tailoring emails to you based on your energy generation, consumption or location).

Otherwise, the only circumstances in which we will do this is to provide The Phoenix Works services to you.

You have the right not to be subject to any decisions made based solely on automated processing, including profiling, which produces legal effects or significantly affects you. Where such decisions are made, you have the right to:

- Obtain human intervention
- Express your point of view
- Obtain an explanation of the decision and challenge it

You have the right to export your data to another service

	We will give you a copy of all the personal data applicable to this right in CSV or JSON format so that you can access it and / or provide it to another service. If you ask us and it is technically possible, we will directly transfer the data to the other service for you. We will not do so to the extent that this involves disclosing data about any other individual.
	You have the right to be ‘forgotten’ by us          You can ask us to delete your personal information in certain circumstances.          You can do this by asking us to erase any personal data that we hold about you, if it is no longer necessary for us to hold that data for any of the purposes set out in this Privacy Policy that still apply to you relating to the provision of The Phoenix Works products or services.          The right to erase your personal data is can be made on the following grounds: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Your personal data is no longer necessary in relation to the purpose for which it was collected or processed</li> <li>• If the processing is based on consent, you choose to withdraw your consent and there is no other legal ground for processing</li> <li>• You object to processing, and there are no overriding legitimate grounds to continue the processing</li> <li>• Your personal data has been processed unlawfully</li> <li>• Your personal data must be erased for compliance with a legal obligation</li> </ul>
	Restrict processing          You have the right to request the restriction of processing of your personal data under specific conditions, unless we have a lawful reason to continue, such as for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.
	Object to processing          You have the right to object to processing which is based on: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Legitimate interests</li> <li>• Tasks carried out in the public interest</li> <li>• Direct marketing</li> </ul>
	You have the right to lodge a complaint regarding our use of your data          We would ask that if you do wish to do this that you please tell us first so that we have a chance to address your concerns.          If we fail in this, you can address any complaint to the UK Information Commissioner’s Office, either by calling their helpline or as directed on their website at www.ico.org.uk.

We'll always endeavour to respond to all requests within one month as per the requirements of the data protection legislation. If your request is complex or if you make lots of requests, the law allows us to extend our time to respond – if this is the case, we'll let you know.

Where requests are manifestly unfounded or excessive, in particular because they are repetitive, we may charge a reasonable fee taking into account the administrative costs of providing the information or refuse to provide the information.

Where we refuse a request, we will explain our reasons for the refusal, and remind you of your right to complain.

How to exercise your rights

You can contact The Phoenix Works data protection officer by writing to:
 The Data Protection Officer

13. How long do we store your data?

We will only store your personal data for as long as is necessary to fulfil the purposes outlined in this Privacy Policy or for as long as we reasonably consider necessary to establish, exercise or defend our legal rights.

This means that your data will be retained in line with statutory and regulatory requirements.

As a paper free organisation, we do not routinely store copies of documents we receive. These are handled appropriately and then securely destroyed through our confidential waste system.

The criteria used to determine these retention periods includes:

- To comply with the minimum regulatory retention requirements as set by MCS, NICEIC
- To comply with the statutory retention periods for accounting records, as set by the Companies Act and HM Revenue & Customs (HMRC).
- Where our retention periods are not governed by legislation, our retention policy is based on commercial justifications, which have been set in accordance with the principle of retaining personal data for no longer than is necessary for the purposes for which it is processed. These include:
  - To demonstrate compliance with our Supplier Licence Conditions
  - To enable us to provide you with our products and services
  - To allow us to resolve any disputes or complaints
  - For the detection and prevention of fraud

14. Information Security

The Phoenix Works have implemented appropriate technical and organisational measures to protect the confidentiality of the personal data that you entrust us with.

This includes robust security mechanisms, business continuity and resilience plans and ongoing testing of these measures.

We update and test our physical, logical and procedural security controls on an ongoing basis. These include limiting access to your personal data to those who need it and training our employees about the importance of maintaining the privacy and security of your personal data.

15. Making this Privacy Policy great

Well done for getting to the bottom of this Privacy Policy! We are conscious that there is a lot of information here and we will be working over the coming months to continue ensuring that this Privacy Policy is as clear and simple as possible.

We have designed it to be as transparent, useful and engaging as possible and we would love to hear your feedback on how we can make it even better.

This is a dynamic document that will change regularly so please don't make this the last time you read it as we will post any changes on this page – any significant changes will, of course, be notified to you by email.
